Evaluation Statement:

Kyle Smolsky is an excellent student teacher. He is a conscientious and highly motivated individual, who has earned the respect of students and colleagues. Kyle brings to the profession a strong desire and enthusiasm to teach.

Mr. Smolsky prepared lessons for a very demanding schedule, which included Ancient History of the World and Modern History of the World. His strong work ethic is reflected in his lesson plans and knowledge on the subject matter. He created lessons that were compatible with the school districts initiatives of UBD or Understanding by Design. He also adapted lessons to the wide range of student ability levels, from students who are identified as gifted and those who function several years below grade level. Flexible grouping techniques and different types of activities were employed to attain the goals and objectives of the units taught. He was receptive to and implemented suggestions for improvement.

Mr. Smolsky is a good disciplinarian and classroom manager. He is active, moving about the classroom using his voice and eyes effectively. He handled classroom problems in an effective non-confrontational manner. His rapport with students is good.

Mr. Smolsky participated in many activities outside of the normal school hours. He was involved in Open House, an evening dedicated to parents meeting and acquiring information about teachers and courses. He also spent time overseeing the Chess Club and the boys' varsity soccer team. Mr. Smolsky also participated in spirit week (Homecoming Week) taking on the duties of a full time teacher to ensure the daily operations of the school ran smoothly.

Mr. Smolsky is a positive, enthusiastic individual. He will be an asset to any secondary teaching staff.
